VERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

[illegible] a few days [illegible] ready [illegible] the [illegible] exception the [illegible] of that [illegible] may be [illegible] purposes and [illegible] The purpose [illegible] these Homes and [illegible] They are dependent [illegible] boundary line being about one mile from the landing at East Portland. The tract lies [illegible] and another [illegible] the Oregon and [illegible] railroad [illegible] forming [illegible] worth $60 per share. It will be seen that [illegible] thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 50 fractional lots. The 50 fractional shares are [illegible] the benefit of the Association, [illegible] for the proceeds [illegible] of shares held. When [illegible] and the Association shall determine [illegible] be put up at auction to the highest [illegible] the proceeds [illegible] original price of shares [illegible] be divided [illegible] among the whole number of shares. [illegible] if a person wants a particular block [illegible] willing to pay $100 or $500 premium more [illegible] as the case may be, he pays it and [illegible] or block as his individual property, the [illegible] being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen therefore that [illegible] is co-operative and all interests mu[illegible]. No man can make a dollar out of it without making a dollar for every other equal [illegible] holder. There is no chance for loss unless property, by some chance, should depreciate [illegible] the first actual cost. Whether [illegible] to happen in the case of his particular [illegible] of land must be judged by each for himself, considering the steady and unprecedented advance [illegible] real estate in this city and neighborhood and at East Portland and vicinity for the [illegible] year or two, it seems hardly possible for [illegible] to go back.

[illegible] The Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against [illegible] of shares. No person is allowed to [illegible] more than the number of shares representing [illegible] blocks, or twenty-four, and [illegible] votes de[illegible] the operations of the Association are [illegible] in the same manner. The buyers of [illegible] may pay down $60 per share which will [illegible] them from all assessments or they may [illegible] $15 quarterly with an assessment of $5 per [illegible] payable with the first installment being [illegible] in this latter case to another and only one [illegible] payment of $3 per share. Upon the [illegible] of the shares in full with the assessments [illegible] the holder is entitled to his certificate [illegible] proportion of all the profits accrued from [illegible] No officer of the Association receives [illegible] for services except the Secretary, who [illegible] $25 per month, so it will be seen that the [illegible] must be light.

[illegible] part of the tract lying along the river is [illegible] plateau, nearly level, about 80 to 90 feet [illegible] the water. There is no part of the front [illegible] blocks but commands a splendid view of [illegible] and the river for miles up and down. That part of the tract lying along the [illegible] is every foot of it of the richest loam [illegible] adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through [illegible] the entire length [illegible] the means of irrigation and power suf[illegible] to supply pure water to every part of the [illegible] tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional [illegible] the entire tract [illegible] these advan[illegible] it would seem impossible [illegible] should [illegible] chance of loss to shareholders. Within a [illegible] each shareholder [illegible] he so may get a [illegible] title to as many lots as his shares may [illegible] or he may continue his interest undi[illegible] with the Association [illegible] the organization may exist.—O[illegible]

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 29.

News from French Sources.

T[illegible] The following official dispatch has just been received and made public: [illegible] A telegram from [illegible] announces that the Prussians have [illegible] between [illegible] and [illegible] and that they [illegible] taking with them [illegible] wounded and leaving [illegible] killed on the [illegible]. Three hundred fugitives crossed the frontier into Swiss territory. They were disarmed and proceeded to Porrentruy.

It is reported here that England desires a meeting of the European Congress to arrange peace.

TOURS, Oct. 28.—The Government continues to withhold the news of operations on the Loire. All that is known is that vast bodies of troops have been manoeuvering for some days, and that great battles are imminent near Le Mans and Orleans.

The official report of the capitulation of [illegible] has been received by the Minister of the Interior.

AMIENS, Oct. 28, via Tours, Oct. 29.—The Prussians were defeated at Formerie this morning by troops of the line, Mobiles and a small force of artillery. The village of [illegible] was burned by the enemy's patrolmen. The French still hold the railway from this place to Rouen. Communication between the two cities is perfect, notwithstanding the repeated attempts of the Prussians to destroy it.

A dispatch just received from Nogent-le-Rotrou says the Prussians have evacuated Sourville in the department of the Eure et Loire, near Chartres, after the engagement with the Mobiles and volunteers, in which the French were successful. Some houses were burned from the artillery fire. The Prussians were at last driven from the field with the loss of one gun.

The Times of this morning has a telegram describing the scenes around Metz at the time of the surrender. A frightful storm had raged for several days all over the north of France. The entire country was under water, and everything was literally drowned out. Telegraph lines were prostrated in all directions.

The French press is trying to persuade the people that there is extreme suffering in Prussia on account of the war.

Late advices from Algeria report that the rebellion has been suppressed and all is quiet again.

Advices from various departments in the East confirm the reports previously published of the retreat of the Prussians.

Garibaldi is still acting on the offensive. He will continue the attacks so successfully begun.

Movements of the French Fleet.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 29.—Late yesterday evening the authorities of the city were notified by parties in Belgium that twelve French war ships had just left Dunkirk going north. The river entrances and coasts of the North and Baltic Seas will immediately be placed in a state of defense.

The Spanish Throne.

MADRID, Oct. 27, via Tours.—It is reported that the Great Powers have returned answers favorable to the candidature of the Duke of Aosta.

Bazaine's Negotiations.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The New York Herald's special says the news of the surrender of Metz with the army of Bazaine numbering 81,000 men of all arms, and between 15,000 and 20,000 disabled troops is confirmed to-day. In certain circles and among Imperialists it is regarded as favorable to the negotiations now going on at Versailles for an armistice. These negotiations on their original basis involve no reference to Metz, the army of Bazaine having been considered by both parties as out of the question. [illegible] that the principle [illegible] arrangement [illegible] to the [illegible] of arms after the [illegible] and that both be [illegible] at the time of the signing of the stipulations. Third, that the city of Paris shall be allowed to receive daily one day's supply of provisions. Fourth, all latitude is to be given throughout the country to proceed with the election of members of the Constitutional Assembly.

It is now reported that Austria has renewed her activity in support of English negotiations and that she is warmly backed by the Italian government.

Intelligence has just reached the Foreign Office that the German authorities at Versailles have [illegible] upon a formal demand [illegible] diplomatic [illegible] language from the Governments of Great Britain and Russia to grant Thiers safe conduct [illegible] through the German lines into Paris. It is expected that the interview between Thiers and Trochu will decide the fate of negotiations for an armistice.

Free Voting to be Allowed in France.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—King William has communicated to Gen. Von Falkenstein his desire for the removal of all obstacles in the way of independent voting, and forbids the enforcement of penalties for holding public meetings. He also orders Falkenstein to release all prisoners already arrested violating such law.

Dispatches via London.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—It is certain the Italian Parliament will be dissolved and a new ministry formed.

The capitulation of Metz was not signed until Thursday night. The whole number of prisoners is now represented at 173,000, including three Marshals and 6,000 officers.

A dispatch to the London Times from Berlin intimates that the French had rejected the German terms of armistice [illegible] thinks the fall of Metz will lead them to consider their determination.

Lord Lyons, the British Minister to Tours, is preparing to [illegible].

Advices from Bou[illegible] to the 2[illegible] state that the capitulation of Bazaine with the army at Metz is in conformity with the orders and [illegible] arrived at with the King of Prussia and [illegible] for a speedy peace.

Heavy firing was heard to-day near Paris [illegible] between [illegible].

The [illegible] left for [illegible] the valley [illegible] the first step in an advance [illegible].

Miscellaneous Dispatches.

LONDON, [illegible] earthquake were felt last week at [illegible] while [illegible].

NEW YORK, [illegible] that a majority of the French [illegible] Tours. They were received [illegible] but most enthusiastically along the road and at Tours.

TOURS, Oct. 29.—It is announced that a balloon from Paris descended within the lines near Strasburg day before yesterday. The letters and dispatches of which there was a great number were forwarded for this city. [illegible] are expected [illegible].

[illegible] Yesterday the Prussians made an attempt [illegible] between [illegible] and [illegible] were [illegible] with [illegible] their desired [illegible].

TOURS, Oct. [illegible] The Prefect of the Department has telegraphed to the ministry [illegible] day that [illegible] cavalry estimated at 1,000 strong has also left Chateau Neuf, near Chartre.

WASHINGTON, [illegible]

There will probably be a general [illegible] but there is uncertainty about [illegible] being allowed to enter Paris.

Her Majesty's Government have not received a reply to their suggestions from Prussia.

NEW YORK, [illegible].—It is asserted that the French Government purchased in this country arms and war equipments to the value of twenty million francs. These purchases have been made [illegible] by separate parties in their behalf to avoid any violation of neutrality laws.

Garibaldi says he first sympathized with Germany because [illegible] but now he is with France because she made herself a republic.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. [illegible] Senator [illegible] says that it is not true that he has been tendered any body or the English mission, and he has no recommendations to make; that he did not come here to consult the President at the latter's request in regard to either the cabinet or the mission. The report that the English mission has been [illegible] to [illegible] was [illegible] to all Monday is erroneous. The English mission was first appointed and when he declined, Senator Morton was offered the position. Up to this time no other tender has been made.

The President has appointed John S. [illegible] Register of the Land Office for [illegible] District in California, and Chas. M. [illegible] Receiver of Public Moneys for the same district.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The excitement over the lottery ran high all day and [illegible] tickets were sold at from $3 25 to $[illegible]. The demand appears to be satisfied now and the crowd has dispersed. Many hundreds of visitors, ladies and gentlemen, visited the pavilion to witness the arrangements for drawing, which are complete, and the telegraph instruments ready for working. The noise of the gearing of the great wheel in operation is like that of a threshing machine and the music will have a poor show.

All the money stolen from Wells, Fargo & Co's box when the stage between Lakeport and Calistoga was robbed on Wednesday morning, amounting to $[illegible], was restored just before daylight yesterday morning to Duff Green, the agent at Kelsey's creek, by a man who came to the house masked and asked that no questions be asked.

The Odd Fellows College and Home Locating Committee will go to Santa Cruz on Tuesday, returning on Monday. They will visit the old Mission at San Jose. Their visiting will then be done. The Convention will meet next Tuesday week, and the balloting on the site will take place probably two weeks from to-night. It is almost certain that the choice will fall either on Napa or the Mission of San Jose, with chances in favor of the former.

The double team race at the Agricultural Park to-day for $[illegible] attracted a crowd. The horses which started were Robin Rough and Joe, Lady Bell and Mary Davis, Coward and Captain [illegible], Frinda and Irwin. The first heat was won by Robin Rough and Joe. Time [illegible]. Second heat same, 2:52, Lady Bell and Mary [illegible]. Third heat same, 2:4[illegible]. A protest was filed to the effect that Mr. Seller did not [illegible] Robin Rough and Joe, according to the rules of the race, and the judges accordingly reserved a decision. None of the horses are regular racers.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 31, 1870

An Impending Rebellion

According to a statement which we find in the Herald, there is to be a rebellion and armed resistance in New York in case a serious attempt is made by the United States authorities to break up Tammany's system of fraudulent voting in that great city. We read that Gov. Hoffman has fully decided upon his course; that he has taken legal advice and been informed that a law of Congress to hinder illegal voting is "plainly unconstitutional," and that "every Federal soldier and every Deputy Marshal who obstructs or hinders the polling of the votes, or who conspires to do so, must be promptly arrested and sentenced. The militia throughout the city and State will be kept under arms, and if any attempt is made to enforce the law by Federal bayonets it will be promptly resisted by an overwhelming force."

Now we don't think this will be Gov. Hoffman's little game. He is much too prudent to do anything of the kind. The Government of the United States has had some experience in dealing with rebellious State authorities and President Grant knows just how to proceed in such cases. Gov. Hoffman probably has not forgotten what befel sundry Southern Governors a few years ago. If however he has so far forgotten that lesson as to attempt to set up the authority of New York against the authority of the United States, in order that fraudulent voting in New York City may be carried on as heretofore, he and his rebellion will be stamped out in short order. There are enough of citizen soldiers in New York alone,—men who had experience in quelling a certain Democratic rebellion in the Southern States,—to put down Gov. Hoffman and all the rabble of "repeaters" he can rake together. The Governor will scarcely provoke a conflict which would end in his introduction into a prison or perhaps with his having an opportunity to speak to a crowd, from a platform just before having a black cap drawn over his eyes.

The Herald and Gov. Hoffman should remember that Tammany's repeaters would not count so many as fighters as they have counted heretofore as repeaters.

Nowhere in the Union, except in the city of New York, has the Democratic party any considerable strength, and there it has maintained its power by wholesale and systematic frauds of the most flagrant description. These frauds have been steadily increasing for several years and unless they are checked they will ultimately lead to revolution or civil war. Knowing that their power depends on the successful perpetration of these outrages in elections, Tammany leaders protest against the law of Congress and threaten to resist it. Their pretense is that it is unconstitutional. But Congress, by the Constitution, has already had power to make regulations relative to the election of its own members. This is no new assumption of power. The authority for it exists in the old Constitution—in the "Constitution as it was." We agree with the Chicago Tribune that it "behooves the President, who did not pale before the accumulated hosts of a rebellion of six millions of Democrats, who thought the war for the Union unconstitutional, to show that he can dispose firmly and effectually of the corporal's guard of public villains led by Hoffman, Tweed and Hall, who are now concerting to overthrow and defeat the national authority in the city of New York."

The Next Congress

A Washington dispatch to the New York Times gives a summary of results of recent elections, made up after the several doubtful districts in Pennsylvania and Indiana had been fully heard from. The States that have, so far, held elections for the new Congress are the following, viz: Maine, Vermont, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Oregon, Nebraska and Mississippi. In all, eighty-two members have been chosen. Of these the Republicans have fifty-six and the Democrats twenty-six, a gain of eight for the latter. The gain is distributed as follows: In North Carolina three members; in Pennsylvania four members; in Indiana, one member. Pennsylvania has elected fourteen Republicans and ten Democrats; Ohio fourteen Republicans and five Democrats; Indiana, six Republicans and five Democrats; and North Carolina two Republicans and seven Democrats. The delegations in the new Congress from Maine, Mississippi and Vermont will be unanimously Republican. There remain to be elected 161 members, and a careful estimate by the Republican Congressional Committee gives the following as the probable result:

> In Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Virginia and West Virginia, there will probably be no change in the political complexion of the delegations, which now stand 55 Republican to 15 Democrats. The Democrats will probably gain as follows: In Florida one; in Louisiana, two; in Missouri two, through Republican divisions; in New York two; in South Carolina one; in Tennessee, by votes of illegally enfranchised rebels, five; in Texas, which votes next February, one; in Wisconsin, one. The Republicans will gain in Kentucky, one; in Maryland, two; in Minnesota, one; in New Jersey, one. Total five. Net Democratic gain, ten. Georgia, not in the present Congress, will probably elect in December four Republicans and three Democrats.

This will divide the complexion of the 161 members yet to be elected into 102 Republicans and 59 Democrats, which added to those already elected will make the next House stand 158 Republicans to 85 Democrats, or just enough to destroy the present two thirds majority of the Republicans, a thing not to be deplored. It is believed that this estimate, which is based upon the results of the elections thus far held, will not be varied five votes by the official returns. The New York Times concludes by saying that "the Democratic boasts in reference to a possible Democratic majority are the inventions of lunatics."

A Swindle all Round

The Mountaineer deplores the loss of the Dalles and Sandy wagon road bill. That paper says that Eastern Oregon has received nothing, in consequence of being so feebly represented in the House. It also observes that some very "consistent gentlemen 'voted away from the school fund three times the amount asked for the much needed wagon road, which would redound to the benefit of thousands of citizens, to a half dozen schemers whose only object is personal aggrandizement.'"

It is only just to say that there was some merit in the proposition to build this road, though it was the only one of the series of smaller schemes that revolved around the great "lock swindle" that had any merit in it. But the great operators, having secured the lion's share of booty, deserted all their allies who helped them to it, and let minor enterprises take care of themselves. The following rueful confession is made by a member from Wasco, quoted from the Mountaineer:

> Mr Savage has informed us that he did all that he could do for the bill, and that a sufficient number of the members of the House to insure its passage, had pledged themselves to vote for it, but for some cause not made manifest to him, except that a Republican voted for it, several gentlemen from the Willamette counties voted against it after they had promised to vote for it. And so the bill was killed. [illegible]

Ah yes. But they at the same time played it finely. They [illegible] obtained what they wanted for the present; they determined to reserve the rest of the fund to be doled out for their own benefit in the next Legislature. The Salem clique, consisting of Miller, Grover & Co., want the remainder of it for their own use. They have no idea of making an equitable division of the spoil. We shall see whether the corrupt crew who controlled the late Legislature will control the next one. They certainly will if the next Legislature is not Republican. If it is Democratic the plundering schemes we have already witnessed will be no comparison to those we are to witness hereafter.

No Honor for a Traitor.—The Herald sneers at Secretary Boutwell's telegram approving the order of the Collector of Customs at Savannah, Georgia, commanding the Custom House flag which had been lowered to half mast by one of his subordinates on account of the death of Gen. Lee, to be raised to full mast again. The New York Tribune thus answers another paper on this subject:

> We did not suppose there would be found at the North or South an editor or newspaper to commend the senseless propriety of displaying the United States flag at half mast, out of respect to a man who made his most heroic efforts and won all his great renown in fighting to humble it and destroy the government it represented. But we had momentarily forgotten Mr James Brooks and the Evening Express. We suppose the Express will next insist in a moment of overpowering sympathy that General Sherman as the head of the army ought to announce the death of General Lee in an official order. It would have precisely the same significance that the lowering of the flag would possess and would not be more improper than the foolish act which the Secretary of the Treasury very rightly condemned. Enough that the nation has forgiven this man and his comrades their crime; let it not be asked to play the hypocrite besides.

A great majority of the property holders of this city, a number representing fully seventy-five per cent. of its wealth, were anxious that the railroad subsidy should succeed, because they believed it would be a most profitable business investment for Portland, and because they wanted to secure railroad communication speedily with the west side counties. They felt also that the subsidy, if granted, would guarantee the construction of the road and remove any lingering doubt that the road would actually be pushed forward without delay. But the Governor for party reasons chose to defeat the wishes of the people of Portland in this matter, and if he has also defeated the west side railroad, which is not improbable, those who are most deeply interested (and they are the whole people of the west side counties) will easily know who they are indebted to for this kindness.

In San Francisco champagne has "popped up" from $23 to $38 per basket. It is believed that before the holidays it will advance to at least $60. This is in consequence of the war in France. Kid gloves and many other articles of French manufacture are also advancing, having already reached high prices.

According to the so called Democratic organs it is a cause for general gratulation that the Portland railroad subsidy was vetoed. Then it is a cause for gratulation, we suppose, that the prospects of the West Side road are seriously clouded if not wholly defeated.

Speaking of the veto of the railroad subsidy bill the Herald says that a most iniquitous scheme of robbery was defeated only by the veto of the Governor. What a compliment to the Legislature, more than two thirds Democratic, that passed the bill.

WAR MISCELLANY

The delegation of the Provisional Government at Tours having approved a suggestion from M Henri de Cathelineau to raise an armed force in La Vendee, and conferred upon him the command of the body to be thus formed, that officer has issued an address which says: "France, in her hour of trial, looks to you, calls upon you, expects you to preserve her honor. Let our cry be 'God and France!' and we shall be victorious."

A letter from London to the New York Tribune gives further particulars concerning the fighting at Sedan. We quote: It is quite certain that the Crown Prince had resolved upon the complete reduction of the town at all costs had not the surrender issued. The superiority of his artillery had been terribly proved. His guns were loaded at the breach and could be fired five times against those of the French once. Further, in nearly all these battles the proportion of Prussian troops to the French has been four to one, and taking into account the greater artillery power of the Prussians it has been estimated that their total advantage were as twenty to one against the French.

The German Provincial Correspondence says that France can no longer hope to change defeat into victory. Its military power is broken; all continuation of the war is useless and therefore, doubly criminal. Count Bismarck having announced the terms which Germany will unconditionally demand, it rests with France to prevent the final conditions of peace from becoming still more severe. It also reiterates the statement that in the interview with M Jules Favre an armistice was the main point considered and the surrender of Toul, Strasbourg and Verdun was only mentioned as the condition of peace. No demand was made for the surrender of Mont Valerien, nor was the extent of territory to be ceded discussed or any expressed intention to reduce France to the rank of a second rate power.

The Saturday Review remarks: It is the misfortune of France at this moment that she wants the one spell which can effectually draw out the latent forces of popular resistance. In every instance in which reverses, such as she has lately sustained, have been turned into victories there has been good generalship either discovered at home or supplied from without. It is true, no doubt, that there has been as yet very little time for the necessary element to show itself. But the fact that its absence is easily explained will not make the effects of that absence less disastrous. Unless some unforeseen change takes place in this respect, France will probably be reduced to see the enthusiasm of her people remain dutiful for the want of a leader competent to call it forth, or blaze up and die amid fresh disasters for want of a leader competent to turn it to account.

One of the absurd errors of the war, repeated in most of the obituaries of Gen. Lee, is that which credits McClellan with having out-generaled Lee in West Virginia in 1861. In point of fact McClellan had nothing to do with Lee in West Virginia, Lee not having command of the rebel forces there until after McClellan had been withdrawn to Washington. Lee was, however, completely out-generaled in that campaign, the only one in which rebel authorities agree with our own in pronouncing this judgment upon his work. The General who opposed him outwitted him and defeated his forces under Reynolds at Rich Mountain, Floyd at Carnifex Ferry, and Wise on the Gauley, was William S. Rosecrans.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE SCHOOL FUND ROBBERY

A Legalized Swindle—The Great Modern "Lock Game"

HOW IT WAS PUT THROUGH BY KELLY, MILLER [illegible] AND CO.—A HUGE SWINDLE ON THE SCHOOL FUND AND BIG PROFITS FOR THE RING—FULL TEXT OF THE BILL AS IT WENT THROUGH THE LEGISLATURE.

An Act to appropriate funds for the construction of a steam boat canal and locks at the Willamette Falls.

Whereas, The Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company was duly incorporated under the laws of Oregon on the 14th day of September 1868, for the purpose of constructing a canal and locks at and on the west side of the Willamette falls, and

Whereas, It is of great importance to the people of Oregon that the obstructions to the free navigation of the Willamette river at that place should be removed and freight carried on said river should be cheapened thereby; therefore,

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That the State of Oregon hereby agrees and pledges its faith to pay the Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company the sum of money, in the manner hereinafter set forth, out of the funds donated by the United States to the State of Oregon for the purpose of internal improvement.

Sec. 2. In order to entitle the said corporation to receive the sum of money hereby agreed to be paid, it shall be the duty of said corporation to construct a canal and locks at and on the west side of the Willamette falls, the said locks to be not less than one hundred and sixty feet in length, and forty feet in width, and to be constructed chiefly of stone, cement and iron, and otherwise built in a durable manner. The said canal and locks to be completed on or before the 1st day of January 1873. And after the completion of the same the said corporation shall pass without delay through the said canal and locks all steamboats, flatboats, barges and other water craft in the order in which they shall arrive at either terminus of said canal.

Sec. 3. The State of Oregon agrees to pay the said sum of money upon the express condition that the said corporation, after the completion of the said canal and locks as hereinafter set forth, shall not charge a greater rate of tolls than fifty cents per ton for freight and ten cents for each passenger going through said canal and locks in steamboats or other water craft. And at the expiration of twenty years from the time said canal and locks are completed the State of Oregon shall have the right and privilege to take and appropriate to its own use forever, the said canal and locks, upon the payment to the said corporation the actual value thereof at the time of taking and appropriating the same, which value shall be ascertained in such manner as the Legislative Assembly of Oregon may hereafter prescribe.

Sec. 4. Within ninety days after the approval of this Act, the Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company shall execute and deliver to the Secretary of State a good and sufficient bond with sureties payable to the State of Oregon in the sum of three hundred thousand dollars in gold coin of the United States, said bond to be approved by the Governor of this State, conditioned that the said company shall on or before the first day of January 1873, construct and complete said canal and locks in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Upon the delivery and approval of said bond the Governor and Secretary of State shall issue and deliver to the said Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company gold bonds of the State of Oregon for the sum of two hundred thousand dollars in bonds of five hundred dollars each, payable to said Canal and Lock Company or its legal assignees in ten years or sooner, at the option of the State, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum payable semi annually, in gold. Principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid out of the fund arising from the five percentum of the net proceeds of the sale of the public lands of the United States, lying within this State, or out of the sale of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to the State of Oregon by Act of Congress for the purpose of internal improvement and not otherwise, or from both of said funds and not otherwise.

Sec. 5. The faith of the State of Oregon is hereby pledged so to administer said funds as to make them available at the earliest period for the payment of said bonds by this Act authorized to be issued upon the express condition that said corporation shall construct said canal and locks in the manner before provided in this Act, and not charge a greater rate of tolls than is herein set forth. And it is further provided that the issuance and payment of said bonds shall be made upon the express condition that said corporation shall pay to the State of Oregon ten per centum of the net profits arising from the tolls collected for passing freights and passengers through said canal and locks, which sum of ten per centum of net profits shall be paid into the common school funds of this State.

Sec. 6. The said Canal and Lock Company shall be required to fully complete said canal and locks according to the requirements of this Act on or before the first day of January, 1873. And if the above condition is not complied with, the bond as required by this Act to be given by said corporation to the State of Oregon shall be deemed to be forfeited, and broken, and all the rights given to said company by the State under this Act shall be deemed forfeited.

Sec. 7. Upon the completion of the said canal and locks the Governor shall appoint three commissioners to examine the works and report thereon, and if from the report of the said Commissioners or a majority of them the works are declared to be completed as hereinbefore specified then said corporation shall be discharged from all liability on its bond executed to the State of Oregon.

Sec. 8. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of [illegible] any moneys in the treasury belonging to said funds hereinbefore specified, to be applied in payment of the interest on said bonds and in payment of the principal of said bonds as far as the same will extend.

Sec. 9. In case the State of Oregon shall at any time take possession of said canal and locks as provided in this act the said sum of two hundred thousand dollars shall be paid into the Common School Fund of this State by the State of Oregon.

Passed the Senate Oct. 15, 1870.

JAMES D. FAY,
President of the Senate.

Passed the House Oct. 20, 1870.

B. HAYDEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

STATE OF OREGON, SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Salem, October [illegible] 1870.

I, S. F. Chadwick, Secretary of the State of Oregon, do hereby certify that I am the custodian of the Seal of the State of Oregon; that the foregoing copy of "An Act to appropriate funds for the construction of a steam boat canal and locks at the Willamette Falls," has been compared by me with the original in this office, and that it is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original.

[SEAL] In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the State of Oregon, the day and year above written.

S. F. CHADWICK,
Secretary of the State of Oregon.

The opposition of Catholic Germany to the infallibility dogma is steadily increasing. It appears that four of the German Bishops have refused to sign the pastoral letter of the Bishops which exhorts the faithful to submit to the decree of the Council. The majority of the professors of the [illegible] as well as a very strong majority of the lay professors [illegible] of the university have declared themselves [illegible]. In Cologne a central committee has been established. [illegible] to a very emphatic protest against the new doctrine and against the ecumenical character of the Council. The adhesions to this protest which are published in the [illegible] of Cologne are very numerous.

The usually grave and reverend New York Commercial Advertiser ought to be ashamed of itself. Read this reckless suggestion of scandal, from one of its most recent issues, and agree in our verdict: "The hair of a prominent member of the Cabinet is said to be rapidly disappearing. The name of the woman is not given."

OREGON

There is no butter to be had in Corvallis—none on the place for a week. Don't look well for farming and dairy enterprise.

Beatty Fawcett or "Sixty," who recently killed John McCourt in Baker county, has surrendered himself to the authorities.

Jesse Eaton of Wasco county, is going to plant ten acres of locust trees, for wood. They will grow to sufficient size in ten years.

John Frederick of Salt Creek, Polk county, died last week of small pox. Harrison Wright of upper Molalla also died on Saturday of the same disease. The pestilence seems to be very widely spread.

The Legislature has changed the Dalles City charter so that the money collected for road taxes will be used for the improvement of the roads of the county and not for the streets of the Dalles, as heretofore.

From the Corvallis Gazette: On Monday last a lad by the name of William Tomlinson, son of a merchant at Philomath, had prepared to go out hunting and was standing in an empty building adjoining his father's store, gun in hand, when by some means, the particulars of which we did not learn, the piece was accidentally discharged, taking effect in the abdomen and making a horrible wound, from which he died Tuesday morning. Dr Lee of this city was called and at once pronounced the wound fatal.

DESTRUCTION BY FIRE OF THE HALL OF OSO LODGE, NO. 110, I. O. O. F.

BEAR VALLEY, Sept 14 1870. At a regular meeting of Oso Lodge No. 110, I. O. O. F. the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the very prompt and honorable settlement by the Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn., through Samuel C. Bates, [illegible] its Agent at Hornitos, Mariposa county, Cal., of the claim of this Lodge under their Policy of Insurance, is but another of its many equitable adjustments and as such deserves our thanks, and we hereby tender the same, and we do hereby endorse its conservative course and recommend the said Phoenix Company, of Hartford, Conn., to the Order as a prompt, reliable and honorable business institution, well deserving of its patronage.

ATTEST: M. NEWMAN, Secretary.

BURNING OF COLUMBIA BREWERY

R. H. MAGILL, Esq., Manager Phoenix Insurance Co., San Francisco. Dear Sir—You will please accept thanks for the proper adjustment and payment in United States Gold Coin of the amount of my claim for loss caused by the total destruction of my brewery and dwelling buildings at Columbia by fire, on the night of the 3d September, 1870. HENRY SCHULER.

San Francisco, Oct. 10, 1870.

FIRE IN OREGON.

Messrs. E. Fox & Bro., Agents Phoenix Insurance Company, of Hartford—Corvallis, Oregon: I hereby acknowledge the prompt and satisfactory settlement by the Phoenix Insurance Company, of my claim against them for the loss of my dwelling house and furniture and I would recommend your Company to those desiring reliable indemnity against fire. J. B. HAMILTON.

Corvallis, Oregon, Sept 23, 1870.

THE PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

Has been represented on the Pacific Coast for over twelve years, during which period 600 claims for loss amounting to over $400,000, have been adjusted and paid on an average of seven days after fires occurred.

If you wish to buy or rent Farms or City Property call on PARRISH & ATKINSON, Corner of Front and Alder streets, Portland, Oregon.

Storm Signals.—We are indebted to the Secretary of War [illegible] a report [illegible] of a signal system [illegible] the establishment [illegible] the benefit [illegible] commerce [illegible] Congress [illegible] nearly every [illegible] occurring in any portion of the United States can be telegraphed to other sections from twenty [illegible] to establish [illegible] the necessary communication [illegible] Congress has organized a corps of [illegible] under the authority of the War Department, to take charge of this duty and transmit the occurrence of [illegible] notable change of atmosphere [illegible] where they are first [illegible] through the country. The [illegible] lowest gauge of the [illegible] would be made known to [illegible] Atlantic coast [illegible] at [illegible] water [illegible] reason that much of the marine losses of the past two years amounting to [illegible] dealers which have overtaken vessels in the California trade during the years 1868-69 might have been avoided [illegible] the Storm Signal Corps were in full operation. The laws governing cyclones, hurricanes and other violent gales are well established, and it is very cheering to know that their serious results can, in future, be [illegible] provided against by the advance made in modern science. The Eastern agriculturist will be hardly less benefitted than the mariner. On this side of the continent our seasons are so regular that the farmer has no dread of rain at other times, and can almost invariably secure his crop free from damage by rain. On the Eastern Slope the case is widely different and there is scarcely a day in the mowing or harvesting season that a heavy shower may not pay an unwelcome visit. The possibility of giving timely warning must, therefore, be regarded as of primary importance. When the corps shall have been thoroughly organized and in full operation, no vessel need put to sea when assured that a violent gale is certain to overtake her before she can make a secure offing. The signals can be conveyed to vessels some distance from the coast by means of steam whistles, guns, colored lights and semaphores, or by signal flags on pilot boats. We can scarcely conceive of a material interest that will not be benefitted by the Storm Signal Act of Congress.

Astoria Items.—Our Astoria letter of October 29th has the following:

The steamer [illegible] arrived from Portland this morning. She took some freight from here and proceeded to sea.

The ship Al[illegible] is receiving a lot of grain tonight by the steamer Okanagon.

The bark Emma Augusta went to sea on Wednesday from Cementville, loaded with lumber.

A party of surveyors arrived from Portland to-day to survey for a new wharf at this place.

The bark Webfoot arrived from San Francisco this afternoon.

The coast surveying party under Capt. Rockwell have discontinued their work for this season and will lay their vessel, the Humboldt, in winter quarters.

A man named Osborn was hurt in the hip a few days ago by a bank caving in on him. He is getting better.

The contractors on the wharf at Fort Stevens are getting along nicely with their work, having built about 80 feet.

Drinking Leather.—A new and fearful ware [illegible] up to tea drinkers. A savant has discovered that when we pour milk into a cup of tea or coffee the albumen of the milk and the tannin of the tea instantly unite and form leather, or minute flakes of the very same compound which is produced in the texture of the tanned hide, and which makes it leather as distinguishable from the original skin. He consequently estimates that in the course of a year a tea drinker of average capacity imbibes enough leather to make a pair of shoes.

Rededication of Lee Chapel.—This beautiful gem of a church, located now, since its removal and repairs, between East Portland and the machine shop, was rededicated yesterday forenoon. After the sermon by Prof. Wm. H. Rogers, A. M., of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, the remaining indebtedness was cancelled by the contribution from the large congregation of $200. The entire cost of removal and repairing was $500. We understand a protracted meeting will be held nightly for several weeks. Rev. Mr. Cooper, pastor.

Personal.—We note among guests at the most prominent hotels of the city, Dr. J. A. Bayley and Ben Simpson, Esq., of Douglas County; Ben Underwood, Postal Agent; Capt. M. Crawford, Hon. James D. Fay, Hon. W. D. Hare and other prominent citizens of the State. Many of these gentlemen, feeling that they might have been exposed to the small pox while in Salem, are rather opposed to going to their homes until they are fully satisfied respecting the probability of their taking the infection.

The Day.—The time for dividing $500,000 between 628 persons in a list of 200,000 names by the Mercantile Library Association of San Francisco has arrived. The distribution begins to-day. In case such a thing should happen as that all the gifts come out first, nobody need be particularly interested in the balance, but all who have any anxiety to know how the thing is going can learn by telegraph. Dispatches will be received at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in this city every hour during the drawing and also at Green's [illegible]

Arrival.—The bark Webfoot, Capt. Gage, arrived in tow of the Okanagon at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Her cargo consists of wool, railroad iron and materials, and a general assortment of merchandise to the amount of 600 tons. Capt. Gage reports having experienced a succession of very heavy gales, which delayed his arrival several days, but the ship comes into port in good order. No other vessels are in the river bound up and none were seen outside.

President's Chair.—After so much abusive [illegible] of the "President's Car" by those who don't go much on such gorgeous scollups, it is a little remarkable, is it not, that Protection Engine Company have gone and got up a gorgeous chair for its President. This chair is of the finest grade of black walnut, mounted with metal and cushioned on the seat, sides, back and arms, with rich velvet plush.

Carbolic Acid.—The excitement about small pox has caused a heavy run on Carbolic Acid and other agents recommended as useful for removing the causes of infection. It is a difficult matter to get beyond the smell of it. Persons carry it in their clothing, have it in their houses and everywhere [illegible] carbolic acid is suggested.

Going East.—Senator and Mrs. G. H. Williams, Senator and Mrs. H. W. Corbett, and Judge and Mrs. J. J. Hoffman, of Portland, will be passengers for the Eastern States by the [illegible] on her return trip. P. B. Johnson, Esq., of Walla Walla will also take his departure this week for San Francisco and perhaps Washington City.

Change [illegible]—Capt. Snow, late of the steam tug [illegible], goes out this morning in command of the [illegible]. Capt. Snow has been for many years a favorite with the traveling public on the Columbia river and his many friends will greet his return to this route with hearty welcome.

The [illegible] Mr. F. [illegible] has presented [illegible] the Richmond Dispatch [illegible] accounts of the late great [illegible] James river, which was unprecedented in the history of the country, except perhaps by the [illegible] in the same locality.

Hurt.—Mr. Farmer, while engaged in superintending the work of moving the old awning from the [illegible] building on Saturday, fell and was [illegible]. He will not be able to be up very long [illegible].

Removal.—Mr. Wm. Beck, one of the pioneer gunsmiths [illegible], has removed his large and varied [illegible] fishing tackle, &c., to the opposite side of Front street, No. 127. See his new advertisement.

Tax Levy.—The County Court on Saturday levied a tax of [illegible] mills on the late assessment for State, county and school taxes. The assessment two years ago was 24½ mills, last year 15 mills.

The Seattle [illegible] reports that a party of immigrants with families from Umatilla, [illegible] for Seattle, are detained in the mountains and must suffer unless they receive aid.

STORM SIGNALS — We are indebted to the Secretary of War for a copy of the official report [illegible] the establishment of a regular system of storm telegrams and [illegible] the benefit [illegible] by [illegible] approved February [illegible] It has been ascertained [illegible] that nearly every [illegible] occurring in any portion of the [illegible] can be telegraphed to other sections from twenty-four to forty hours ahead of [illegible] To establish the necessary communication [illegible] has thus organized a corps of [illegible] under authority of the War [illegible] to take charge of the duty and transmit [illegible] of the occurrence of a storm [illegible] from the point where they are first [illegible] to all others throughout the country [illegible] of a heavy northwest gale in the [illegible] of Idaho would be made known [illegible] to the dwellers on the Atlantic [illegible] two days before its arrival at the [illegible] is believed, and with sound reason that [illegible] the marine losses of the past two years amount [illegible] 449 disasters which have overtaken vessels [illegible] California trade during the years 1868 [illegible] have been avoided if the Storm Signal [illegible] in full operation. The laws governing cyclones, hurricanes and other violent gales [illegible] established and it is very cheering [illegible] that their serious results can in future be [illegible] or provided against by the ad[illegible] made in modern science. The Eastern [illegible] will be hardly less benefited than [illegible] On this side of the continent our [illegible] are so regular that the farmer has [illegible] at other times and can almost [illegible] secure his crop free from damage by [illegible] On the Eastern Slope the case is widely [illegible] and there is scarcely a day in the mowing [illegible] harvesting season that a heavy shower may [illegible] an unwelcome visit. The possibility [illegible] timely warning must therefore be regarded as of primary importance. When the [illegible] shall have been thoroughly organized and [illegible] operation no vessel need put to sea when [illegible] that a violent gale is certain to overtake [illegible] she can make a secure offing. The [illegible] be conveyed to vessels some distance [illegible] coast by means of steam whistles guns [illegible] lights and semaphores or by signal flags [illegible] boats. We can scarcely conceive of a [illegible] interest that will not be benefited by the [illegible] Signal Act of Congress

ASTORIA ITEMS.—Our Astoria letter of [illegible] October [illegible] the following

[illegible] Del Norte arrived from Portland [illegible] She took some freight from here [illegible] to sea.
[illegible] Alpha is receiving a lot of grain to [illegible] for Okanogan
[illegible] Emma Augusta went to sea on [illegible] from Cementville loaded with lum[illegible]

[illegible] of surveyors arrived from Portland [illegible] for a new wharf at this place
[illegible] Webfoot arrived from San Francisco [illegible]
[illegible] surveying party under Capt Rock [illegible] discontinued their work for this season [illegible] by their vessel the Humboldt in winter [illegible]
[illegible] named Osborn was hurt in the hip a few [illegible] ago by a bank caving in on him. He is [illegible]
[illegible] on the wharf at Fort Stevens [illegible] along nicely with their work having [illegible] about 80 feet.

[illegible] LEATHER —A new and fearful warning is held up to tea drinkers. A savant has discovered that when we pour milk into a cup of tea [illegible] the albumen of the milk and the tannin [illegible] instantly unite and form leather or [illegible] of the very same compound which [illegible] in the texture of the tanned hide and [illegible] makes it leather as distinguishable from [illegible] original skin. He consequently estimates [illegible] the course of a year a tea drinker of average [illegible] imbibes enough leather to make a pair of shoes.

[illegible] OF LEE CHAPEL —This beautiful [illegible] of a church, located now since its removal and repairs between East Portland and the [illegible] shop, was rededicated yesterday forenoon. After the sermon by Prof Wm H [illegible] A M of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary the remaining indebtedness [illegible] by the contribution from the large [illegible] of $280. The entire cost of removal [illegible] was $500. We understand a protracted meeting will be held nightly for several [illegible] Rev. Mr Cooper, pastor

[illegible] —We note among guests at the [illegible] hotels of the city, Dr J A Bay [illegible] Simpson, Esq of Douglass County [illegible] Postal Agent Capt M Craw[illegible] James D Fay Hon W D [illegible] and other prominent citizens of the [illegible] Many of these gentlemen feeling [illegible] have been exposed to the [illegible] in Salem are rather opposed to [illegible] their homes until they are fully satisfied [illegible] probability of their taking the in[illegible]

[illegible] DAY —The time for dividing $500 000 between [illegible] persons in a list of 200 000 names by [illegible] Library Association of San Francisco [illegible] arrived. The distribution begins to [illegible] In case such a thing should happen as that [illegible] come out first nobody need be particularly interested in the balance but all who [illegible] anxiety to know how the thing is going [illegible] by telegraph. Dispatches will be received at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in this city every [illegible] during the drawing and also at Green's [illegible]

[illegible]—The bark Webfoot Capt Gage arrived in tow of the [illegible] at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Her cargo consists of wool [illegible] and materials and a general assortment [illegible] merchandise to the amount of 600 tons. Capt. Gage reports having experienced a succession of very heavy gales which delayed his arrival several days but the ship comes into port in good order. No other vessels are in the river [illegible] up and none were seen outside

PRESIDENT'S CHAIR —After so much abuse of the "President's Car" by those who [illegible] much on such gorgeous scollops [illegible] it is [illegible] remarkable is it not that Protection [illegible] Company have gone and got up a gorgeous [illegible] for its President. This chair is of the finest [illegible] of black walnut mounted with metal and [illegible] on the seat sides back and arms with [illegible] velvet plush

CARBOLIC ACID —The excitement about small[illegible] has caused a heavy run on Carbolic Acid [illegible] other agents recommended as useful for removing the causes of infection. It is a difficult matter to get beyond the smell of it. Persons carry [illegible] clothing have it in their houses and [illegible] you go carbolic acid is suggested

GOING EAST —Senator and Mrs G H Williams [illegible] and Mrs H W Corbett and Judge and [illegible] J Hoffman of Portland will be passengers for the Eastern States by the O[illegible] on [illegible] return trip. P B Johnson Esq of Walla Walla, will also take his departure this week for San Francisco and perhaps Washington City

CHANGE OF OFFICERS —Capt Snow late of [illegible] steamship Ajax goes out this morning in command of the Oregon. Capt Snow has [illegible] for many years a favorite with the traveling public on the Columbia river, and his many friends will greet his return to this route with hearty welcome

THE RISE OF THE JAMES —Mr F [illegible] Arnold has presented us with copies of the Richmond Dispatch which contain full accounts of the late great rise of the James river which was unprecedented in the history of the country except perhaps by the flood of 1[illegible] on the same locality

[illegible]—Mr Farmer who engaged in superintending the work of removing the old awning from the Estes & Stimson block on Saturday fell and was hurt pretty badly. He will not be laid up very long however it is thought

REMOVAL —Mr Wm Beck one of the pioneer gunsmiths of this coast has removed his large and varied stock of guns pistols fishing tackle [illegible] to the opposite side of Front street [illegible] his new advertisement

TAX LEVY —The County Court on Saturday levied a tax of 13½ mills on the late assessment for State, county and school taxes. The assessment three years ago was 23½ mills last year [illegible]

[illegible]—The Seattle Intelligencer reports that a party of immigrants with families from Umatilla [illegible] route to Seattle, are detained in the mountains and [illegible] suffer unless they secure aid

MRS MATTIE FIELD'S LECTURE —We regret to say that only a few of our people heard Mrs Field's lecture [illegible] Saturday evening at [illegible] Theater—a fact no doubt partly due to the heralding and partly to the [illegible] too common opinion that women can hardly [illegible] subjects requiring literary and historical research. Mrs Field treated her subject [illegible] such manner as to show her and once that she was familiar with the lives of the persons of whom she spoke and the histories of the two countries giving it interest by varying the monotony of historical relations with sprightly passages of [illegible] philosophy of government etc. The lecture altogether was a womanly production showing here and there more heart than reason and yet it contained many passages of great beauty and [illegible] thought. We believe however that Mrs Field might greatly improve this lecture by a more careful and connected arrangement of the various matters treated [illegible] as much a necessity in [illegible] composition as in a picture or a statue. Her lecture has [illegible] much to admire but it also has blemishes which Mrs Field would herself detect were she to hear it spoken by another. Her style of delivery is offhand really sometimes rapid and occasionally decidedly dramatic but always pleasing. We are of opinion that those who heard her were quite well pleased and would not miss the opportunity to hear her again

THAT [illegible] BIRD —While in Chicago Mr George [illegible] of the Cosmopolitan purchased a trained bird. He is none of your singers but works for a living. His drinks are drawn by his own beak from a reservoir beneath his cage and supported from a silver cup. He feeds from a wagon which [illegible] in by a string and he manages the thing to perfection. The [illegible] now over 100 birds in its aviary besides the [illegible]

WOOL —The B[illegible] brings to this port on her present voyage [illegible] quantity of wool for one of our manufacturing establishments. We expect next to hear of some one shipping to Oregon for consumption here mutton sheep, etc. We had no idea that Oregon was so near out of wool. The secret of the matter may turn up in which case we predict that this shipment is only for a speculation on prices

THE DRAMATIC SEASON —The [illegible] company will open the dramatic season at [illegible] Theater this evening in [illegible] with Miss F M Bates Mr and Mrs Beatty Mr Jas H [illegible] and other popular artists

The Bella [illegible] Dramatic Troupe with Miss [illegible] the Pixley Sisters Mr Melville and others will leave by the steamer to-day for Victoria where they propose to play a season of two weeks and then return here to open a theater for the winter

SANITARY MEASURES PROVIDED —Mayor Goldsmith and the Health Committee of the Common Council have adopted precautionary measures for the safety of the city against small pox should that disease make its appearance in Portland. The public however notwithstanding should vaccinate and keep cool

THE CELEBRATION TO-DAY —This afternoon at 2 o'clock the procession of Firemen, members of the Council city and county officers members of the press citizens etc will form on First street for the celebration ceremonies incident to receiving the new engine house built by the city for Company No 4

FOR VICTORIA —The propeller [illegible] will sail at 1 o'clock P M to-day for Victoria Port Townsend Seattle Olympia and other ports on the Sound mentioned in the advertisement of the company

SPECIAL SALES —Mr A B Richardson will sell two separate parcels of household furniture one at 10 o'clock A M and one to-morrow. See advertisements

FLAG [illegible]—The ominous small pox flag was hoisted at the residence of Mr [illegible] in East Portland on Saturday

NOT ARRIVED —The N P T Co's steamship O[illegible] had not arrived up to the hour of going to press this morning

Agricultural Report

WASHINGTON Oct 21 —The agricultural report for October shows that the wheat crop in the majority of the States and especially in all those in which this cereal is prominent are materially less in quantity than the crop of 1869 which was very large notwithstanding the assertions of some croakers to the contrary. The reduction is due first to the loss of plants by an improper season for germination and the early growth of the winter variety followed by an open and somewhat variable winter and second to the drouth which prevailed with great severity in the Northern and Eastern States. This reduction as averaged from our local returns appears to be about fourteen per cent. The average quality of the crop is better than that of 1869. The Pacific coast reports are variable. Some counties in California make the quality superior while others report injury from rust and inferiority in maturity of the grain blighted by drouth. The early sown fall and spring grain of that region is good while the late sown was injured by the excessive heat of the summer. Among winter varieties which have succeeded best the Tappahannock is favorably named. It is favorably mentioned through out the South and West and has done well along the mountains of Utah

The corn crop unlike that of the two years preceding is a full one and the best for the past ten years. Intelligent men estimate the total product of corn at 2[illegible]0 000 000 bushels

Oats are not generally so productive as last year except in the South

[From the Corvallis Gazette]

The bill [illegible] most important to the people of the West Side [illegible] has engaged the attention of the late Legislature [illegible] passed both [illegible] now awaits the signature of the Governor [illegible]

[illegible]

And what shall we think of the Democratic Senators and Representatives whose [illegible] against it in this [illegible] Is it possible for them to [illegible] honestly [illegible] They are not wise to [illegible] from the support of a just measure by the [illegible] They [illegible] And yet it is true that some of the Democrats [illegible] even [illegible] and [illegible] bitterly opposed the bill, but there stood out [illegible] whom were Dr [illegible] and Hayden. The latter was speaking in his happiest vein [illegible]

This bill is not so arbitrary as the one passed [illegible] (he referred to the Police Bill) and [illegible] could vote for that which had no conditions and give the people no choice while this bill left the city to act as it pleased. Portland had made what it was worth out of this [illegible]. This was not a question of politics. Some people think Holladay is a [illegible] but what every measure can be defeated. What he wanted was a railroad that and nothing more

And what finally is to be the fate of the bill. We are among those who have harbored the heretical belief that Mr Grover is neither a clear sighted nor a courageous politician. He wants that luminous mind which comprehends all situations and foresees every consequence. He is one of those partisans who assume a bitter attitude and cry out [illegible] that expression comprehends all there is of his political genius. He has without a doubt conceived an infantile prejudice toward Mr Holladay and would like to poke sticks at him [illegible] will therefore crush the bill with an emphatic veto. He may also expect to play little David and attack this railroad Goliah with the [illegible] that [illegible] thereby rendering himself inexpressibly dear to the people. There is danger to [illegible] in another quarter. The [illegible] veto of the bill raising the salaries of the Supreme and Circuit Judges [illegible] indicates that he is afflicted with a tendency to spread out his thin person and thunder logic as the [illegible] of the Constitution and the consideration of this bill has suggested constitutional difficulties. We hope that Mr Grover will disappoint his enemies and at the same time refuse to decapitate himself by signing the bill. As we are not a heathen [illegible] agree to worship him even then but will accord him all the honor he deserves

Vice President Colfax, in a speech delivered recently in Indiana formally announced his determination to retire from public life at the close of his present term and assured his hearers that he would never again be found speaking in a political campaign. There will be very general regret at the loss of so able and faithful a public man from the arena of American politics. If not among the profoundest of our statesmen Mr Colfax has ever been zealous and unwavering in his devotion to Republican principles. He will leave the Vice Presidential chair with the warm regard of the nation and probably without an enemy in the Senate. [illegible]

INDIAN POKER SHARPS —The Gold Hill News says that the Piute Indians in that quarter are becoming adepts in poker playing. All the money they earn by sawing wood and otherwise is bucked off at the aboriginal tiger. Captain Charley lately made a professional excursion to Reed River. He was in affluent circumstances owned a pony a [illegible] hat a red shirt military coat boots and had three dollars in coin. He struck a game played a week got cleaned out and returned with nothing on but an old [illegible] shirt. He says Reese River Injun dam [illegible] cal. Heap stealum. A Dot upon the Sea

PA[illegible] HERE [illegible] HISTORY

From the Boston Herald September [illegible]

[illegible] days ago a tiny boat less than twenty feet in length and carrying two men and a [illegible] left Liverpool England with the avowed purpose of crossing the Atlantic to New York. The bold and hazardous project was the subject of much a[illegible] at the [illegible] yesterday afternoon [illegible] signalled approaching our harbor. At [illegible] o clock the collector's tug [illegible] harbor and met the venturesome [illegible] about 8 o clock opposite the [illegible] light [illegible] towed them to this city. The boat which has thus accomplished a voyage as hazardous and so altogether novel is named the City of Ragusa. is twenty feet in length over all six feet beam and two feet eight inches in depth drawing two feet of water. She is [illegible] rigged and spreads seventy [illegible] canvas is fitted with a two bladed steam propeller worked by hand, and he [illegible] the boards being only one half inch in thickness. In this miniature ship are all the arrangements for cooking, etc, and the [illegible] for carrying provisions and water sufficient for the voyage which has just been so successfully terminated consists of two men—John Charles [illegible] the commander and Nicholas Primoraz. These are the two men who, actuated as the former says by a mere whim, were induced to make this attempt, which few could regard as anything but foolhardiness after seeing the craft in which they launched their destinies and hung their lives by a mere thread. The former has followed the sea from boyhood and has passed an eventful life. He saved two lives off the coast of Kent on the 28th of September 1858 for which he was awarded a medal by the British Humane Society. He is an Irishman, and has a home in Dublin. His companion is an Austrian. On Thursday June 2d, these daring spirits launched their frail bark, and, accompanied only by a dog, left Liverpool. In ten days they put into Queenstown, where they were obliged to remain four days in order to have some caulking done on their boat, which was leaking, and left there on the 16th, having on board one ton of ballast and 500 weight of coal. They took the [illegible] route, the same as taken by the Cambria, the prevailing winds being westerly and for the first thirty five days they suffered a great deal being kept wet through continually. They were als on the first part of the voyage and were compelled to eat their meat raw, which added to their discomfort and helped to discourage them. After being eighteen days out they became short of fire-wood with no means of getting a supply. At this time they very luckily picked up a barrel containing about four gallons of tar which was a perfect God send, they using the tar upon the decks and the barrel for fuel. On the 4th of July they celebrated "the day of the Great Republic" drinking the health of President Grant in some prime Irish whiskey with which they were supplied. On the evening of that day there was a heavy gale through which, however, they rode safely. On the 28th of August they lost one of their crew, the dog, which died from scurvy. They had a great deal of heavy weather but the little bark bore herself nobly, and the men themselves expressed surprise that she rode the heavy gales so staunchly. She was and the pumps, of which they have two, were kept at work constantly. In the severe gale of last Saturday they experienced the hardest time of the voyage, but suffered no disaster save the carrying away of the jigger boom. The largest number of miles made in one day was one hundred and fifty-three which was made in the first part of the voyage, and the smallest eleven miles. The average speed was four knots an hour. A number of vessels were spoken on the voyage, among which were the bark Radcliffe on the 28th of June bound to Quebec, the ship Moxwell August 9, and the homeward steamer Russia, August 24. From the first of these two they took in supplies of provisions and water. Two whales were very neighborly off Cape Clear coming near enough to be touched with the hand and giving the voyagers some alarm lest they should upset their frail ship.

One of "Mother Cary's chickens" attended them from the time they left Queenstown till they passed George's Bank. The men say that they had the most perfect confidence in the success of their enterprise and in the roughest gale could go to sleep with the greatest composure. Only the lateness of the season prevents them from returning home as they came. Their original intention was to go direct to New York, but they concluded to put into this port, and will go from here to the former place, and will remain this side of the Atlantic till another summer. They were towed to Long Wharf by the tug and there can be seen this smallest of all crafts that ever traversed the broad Atlantic

THE HORSE —Here is a Boston boy's composition on "The Horse." "The horse is the most useful animal in the World. So is the Cow. I once had thirteen Ducks and two was drakes and a Skunk killed One. h smelt Orful. I knew a boy which had 7 chickens but His father would not lett him raise Them and so he got mad and [illegible] boarsil a Hole in his mothers Wa[illegible] I wish I Had a horse—a horse w[illegible]s 1000 pounds."

The Chicago Rep[illegible] which under its new management is an independent paper with Democratic leanings, doesn't think much of the great Mr Pendleton. It says of him: "The defeat of the Democrats in Ohio this year is very moderate compared with what awaits them next year, if the programme already agreed upon be carried out. It includes the running of Mr Pendleton for Governor again, and a Hoffman Pendleton coalition for the next Presidency. One would think that as Mr Pendleton has been beaten in six successive years for every elective office known to the Constitution of the United States—Vice President in 1864, Congressman in 1866, President in 1868 and Governor in 1869—he would retire from the field of active politics, but he is not of a retiring disposition."

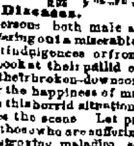
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies; see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure them without injury from mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of [illegible] any pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, could apply immediately. Either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these distressing maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE APPLICATIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES [illegible] before the books were opened, and a large [illegible] shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now [illegible] pose of shares. As it is with one [illegible] Portland Homestead Association, the first organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its [illegible] the manner in which it is proposed to [illegible] operations. The purposes of these Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They [illegible] for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals —shareholders—and the advance in value of surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] population and demand for room [illegible] still near the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the [illegible] east boundary line being about [illegible] ferry landing at East Portland. [illegible] in one strip along the Willamette river [illegible] in length and another strip along the [illegible] California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the [illegible] rows of blocks (with a street between them) the whole forming a figure [illegible] It is divided into 74 blocks, [illegible] streets running at right angles [illegible] all lots along the river front. The shares [illegible] ber 600, worth $60 per share. [illegible] a share thus represents [illegible] undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The additional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all [illegible] taken and the Association [illegible] mine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction [illegible] bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be [illegible] equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 or $200 premium [illegible] or less as the case may be [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among the [illegible] of shareholders. It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative, and [illegible] [illegible] No man can make a dollar [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no show for [illegible] the property by some chance, [illegible] far below the first actual cost. [illegible] liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this city and [illegible] hood and at East Portland and vicinity [illegible] last year or two, it seems hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the Association [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible]. The buyer of shares may pay down $[illegible] per share [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] [illegible] pay $16 quarterly with an [illegible] share payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other) assessment of [illegible] payment of the shares in full, [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to [illegible] and his proportion of all the [illegible] all sources. No officer of the Association [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month, so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about [illegible] feet above the water. There is [illegible] row of blocks but [illegible] Portland and the river [illegible] stream. That part of the tract lying [illegible] railroad is, every foot of it, [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening. [illegible] tiful little stream of pure [illegible] almost the entire length of this [illegible] affording the means of irrigation, [illegible] ficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all [illegible] tages, it would seem impossible that there [illegible] be any chance of loss to shareholders. [illegible] year each shareholder, if he [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as [illegible] represent, or he may continue [illegible] vided with the Association, [illegible] tion may exist. Oregon [illegible]

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

We have been led to make [illegible] fact that the subject of [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland is being discussed here among all classes [illegible]

Riverside just south of East Portland [illegible] been established. The site [illegible] [illegible] a mile south of the ferry landing [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one [illegible] in length borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead [illegible] but a trifle above the other prong of the H, [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river [illegible] sive view of Portland, East Portland [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles [illegible] for the land is partly covered with [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for [illegible] with an avenue between them, [illegible] of the H (which has already been [illegible] east. This last tract of land is [illegible] valley which is now under a high state of [illegible] Through its whole length runs a brook [illegible] of which is clear as crystal. With [illegible] Association proposes to have water conveyed [illegible] [illegible] every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin
